

“In the end, it’s not the years in your life that count.
It’s the life in your
years.”

- Abraham Lincoln

Abraham Lincoln was born on _____, _____,
in the state of _____.

He served as the _____th president of the United States.

He was the first president to be born outside the original _____ states, the first president to wear a _____ (his predecessors were clean shaven), the first president to send a message by _____ (that was before the invention of the telephone), the first & only president to hold a _____ (on a device he invented for freeing steamboats that ran aground), and the first president to be _____

(he was shot and killed by _____ _____ during a performance at _____'s Theater in _____, DC, in April of _____.

Abraham Lincoln

“If you want to test a man’s character, give him power.”