GRATITUDE-BUILDING CONVERSATION STARTERS

Name something you are grateful for today.

Name something you admire about the person on your left.

Share something your parents did that makes you thankful.

Tell what you know about America's first Thanksgiving.

Tell about a friend for whom you are grateful and why.

What is something you like about living where you live?

Name something you love about the way God made you.

Share a favorite Bible verse and tell why it's special to you.

GRATITUDE-BUILDING CONVERSATION STARTERS

Tell about a neighbor who has been a blessing to you and why.

Name something you admire about the person on your right.

Name something positive that resulted from a difficult trial. Explain.

Share a lesson God is teaching you that you're glad to know.

What is your favorite school subject and why?

Name a food you are thankful for. When did you first eat it?

Name three things from childhood you are grateful for.

What is your favorite pastime and why?

GRATITUDE-BUILDING CONVERSATION STARTERS

Tell about a time a stranger came to your aid in some way.

Name something you love about the country you live in.

What is your favorite song or hymn?
Sing the first verse.

Tell about a time when God calmed your fears.

Share a funny story that always makes you laugh.

Tell about a good book you've read. What did you like about it?

Tell a story about your favorite teacher.

What is your favorite movie and why?