

50

things to donate, regift, or SELL FOR CASH

01. Books you own but have no interest in reading
02. Things you've been given that don't suit your style
03. Fine china or crystal you never use
04. Clothing in good repair that doesn't fit
05. Power tools you no longer need
06. Collectibles you've stopped collecting
07. Classic toys for children: Lego, Lincoln Logs, etc.
08. Shoes that are too tight
09. Fine or costume jewelry
10. Small kitchen appliances
11. Patio furniture in need of refurbishing
12. Propagated cuttings from ivies or succulents
13. Board games you no longer play
14. Puzzles that still have all their pieces
15. Homeschool curricula no longer in use
16. Gardening tools and watering cans
17. Pop-up tents and camping gear
18. Past halloween costumes
19. Bicycles your kids have outgrown
20. Old luggage or carry-ons
21. Extra ink cartridges to printers you no longer own
22. Exercise equipment that's just gathering dust
23. Baby furniture or clothing your little one has outgrown
24. Prescription eyewear that no longer works for you
25. Ski bibs and snow suits
26. Specialty pans for baking: bundt, springform, etc.
27. Cookware sets
28. Maternity clothes after your last pregnancy
29. Journals you bought but never used
30. Nice purses or handbags
31. Watches you seldom wear
32. Baby bouncers and activity centers
33. Formal dresses
34. Last generation technology
35. Silver trays and tea sets
36. White elephant or gag gifts
37. A set of golf clubs you haven't used in years
38. Old quilts and blankets
39. Mismatched bed or table linens
40. Video games your kids no longer play
41. Raincoats and umbrellas
42. The stroller your preschooler no longer needs
43. Framed artwork
44. Home decor items you've grown tired of
45. Christmas lights, trees, and decor
46. Empty flower pots and planters
47. Sleeping bags, cots, and air mattresses
48. Cast iron baking or frying pans
49. Stadium seats or lawn chairs
50. Card or game tables

For more free printables, visit www.flandersfamily.info